MEMO ENDORSED

Honorable Colleen McMahon

New York, New York 10007

Re: Shaw Family Archives, Ltd., et al. v. CMG Worldwide, Inc., et ano.; Index No. 05 Civ. 3939

Dear Judge McMahon:

The parties jointly and respectfully request a final one week extension of time to submit the joint pre-trial order to the Court, which is otherwise due on January 22, 2008. If the Court grants the parties' request, the pre-trial order will be due on January 29, 2008.

Following the Court's rulings of earlier today, the parties now have clarity on the scope of the pre-trial order, and will be exchanging draft proposed orders tomorrow. A final one-week extension would enable the parties to effectively review and respond to each other's proposed exhibits, deposition designations, stipulations and similar items, particularly in light of the upcoming holiday weekend. The parties anticipate working cooperatively and diligently throughout this process.

We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,
